Tulsa Professional Association (TPA), founded in 1986, is one of Tulsa's largest and oldest networking organizations that seek to exchange and promote business opportunities for its members. We are seeking successful professionals from specific industries who want to find connection and awareness to the Tulsa market while creating many significant enhanced business opportunities for themselves. Our website above will give you a broad overview of the membership and industries represented by dedicated professionals who have embraced networking as a tangible and rewarding endeavor.

We welcome your interest to our quality organization and ask that you take time to complete the following Preliminary Membership Questionnaire for further membership consideration:
